DOLE's NCMB Region IV-B and DOLE Library launches the 5th Book Corner at Palawan State University

The Regional Conciliation and Mediation Board (RCMB) Region IV-B (MIMAROPA) and the DOLE-Library, a unit service of Labor Communications Office in partnership with Palawan Industrial Peace Advocates and Palawan State University established another DOLE-NCMB Book Corner in the MIMAROPA Region.

Since 2013, the NCMB Region IV-B and the DOLE Library have been establishing Book Corners in selected educational institutions in the MIMAROPA Region to serve as a hub for various DOLE publications, references, and reading materials on employment, alternative dispute resolution processes, labor-management cooperation schemes, livelihood, productivity, and other information pertaining to labor and employment and other labor related issues.

To formalize the partnership, OIC-Office of University President, Dr. Lorna C. Gelito, NCMB Region IV-B Officer-in-Charge, Ms. Julia P. Peleo, Palawan Industrial Peace Advocates President, Mr. Erwin L. Galleon, and DOLE Librarian Maria Teresa M. Cabance signed a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) on 20 September 2016. DOLE Palawan Field Office, Ms. Ma. Socorro U. Marquez, other university officials, staff and students witnessed the turnover ceremony and MOA signing.

The Book Corner at Palawan State University is the 5th book corner to be established in the MIMAROPA Region by the DOLE's NCMB Region IV-B and LCO through the DOLE Library.

Book Corners have also established at the Divine Word College (DWC) in Calapan, Oriental Mindoro as partner-school beneficiary on 12 September 2013; at the Southwestern Institute for Business and Technology (SIBTECH), Pinamayan, Oriental Mindoro on 27 February 2014; Romblon State University-San Fernando, Romblon on 27 March 2014, and at the Romblon State University-Odiongan, Romblon on 28 October 2014.
